WELCOME...

Hi, my name is Nefateri and I am the proud distributor of Beautiful Black Art. I started buying art posters for myself over 3 years ago when I wanted to uplift my home, inspire my children and boost my own self esteem. The power of positive Black art cannot be under-estimated. I received compliments and comments from people who came to visit me in my house, which caused me to seek out a way to help others beautify their homes too.

Well here I am with an abundance of images that make great gifts as well as personal possessions. Browse through, enjoy and buy something that makes your heart skip a beat, your lips smile and you proud: Say it loud.....
